

Now in Coatesville

Anger Management Classes

The Peacemaker Anger Management program offers many different options for individuals whose uncontrollable anger is threatening both their health and their relationships. This program is also for people who have been mandated to an anger management program by city county and state judicial authorities.

Learn how to:

- Identify the best ways to handle anger
- Understand how pride, fear, and loneliness feeds your anger
- Uncover and eliminate myths that perpetuate anger.
- Identify learned patterns of relating, thinking, and behaving that influence anger

Mandated clients will receive:

- Certificate of completion
- Letter of Documentation
- Progress report for your attorney, probation officer, or judge

Our Group, Individual, and Adolescent classes are held at Life Transforming Ministries located at 645 East Lincoln Highway in Coatesville. To Protect the privacy of our clients, we are unable to accept walk-ins. Please call or email to discuss your needs.

To Register or for more Information;

610-269-2661ext. 37

manage.anger@thepeacemakercenter.org

The Peacemaker Anger Management Program is offered by the Peacemaker Center in partnership with Life Transforming Ministries and New Mornings Re-entry Services

